

ANNOUNCEMENT
SONGKHLA PROVINCIAL AGRICULTURAL OFFICE

Subject: Joint Declaration of Intent to Prevent and Combat Corruption
Fiscal Year B.E. 2569 (2026)

Whereas the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACC) has implemented the Integrity and Transparency Assessment (ITA) for public sector agencies to evaluate their levels of integrity and transparency, thereby enabling such agencies to improve and develop their operations to be more efficient, transparent, and in accordance with the principles of good governance;

The Songkhla Provincial Agricultural Office recognizes the importance of preventing and combating corruption, as well as promoting integrity and transparency in public administration, in order to build confidence among the public, farmers, and all stakeholders;

Now, therefore, the Songkhla Provincial Agricultural Office hereby declares its commitment as follows:

1. Adherence to Integrity, Ethics, and Transparency

All personnel shall perform their duties with honesty, fairness, transparency, and accountability, with due regard to the public interest as a priority.

2. Zero Tolerance for Corruption

All forms of corruption are strictly prohibited, including the offering or acceptance of bribes and any unlawful pursuit of personal gain from official positions.

3. Promotion of an Organizational Culture of Integrity

The Office shall foster awareness, ethical values, and active participation among personnel in preventing and combating corruption.

4. Development of Transparent and Accountable Systems

Operational processes, service delivery, and administrative systems shall be continuously improved to ensure efficiency, transparency, and compliance with good governance principles.

5. Continuous Implementation of ITA Guidelines

The Office shall support and strictly follow the ITA framework to enhance transparency standards and performance outcomes.

All executives, officials, and personnel of the Songkhla Provincial Agricultural Office shall strictly comply with and actively implement this declaration to ensure that all operations are conducted with integrity, transparency, and free from corruption.

This announcement is hereby issued for general acknowledgment and strict compliance.
